Of those, more than 32 percent were criminal cases, almost 52 percent were civil cases, less than 14 percent were family cases, and almost 2 percent were juvenile cases. There were 9,064 non-traffic cases disposed during the fiscal year. The First Judicial District also reported 11,465 filings and 11,300 dispositions for traffic and parking cases.

The standard measure of court performance is the clearance rate, which is calculated by dividing the number of dispositions by the number of filings and multiplying by 100. Courts aspire to dispose of at least as many cases as have been filed and achieve a clearance rate of 100 percent or higher. The clearance rate for all non-traffic cases in the First Judicial District 115 percent. The clearance rate for traffic cases was 99 percent.

The five-year trends for total non-traffic filings and dispositions in the First Judicial District's courts are shown in the chart below.
